CLASP BOOK OF THE Preface.

THE present Translation of SPOHR's "Die Letzten Dinge" was completed when that work first appeared in Germany, and before the publication of any other adaptation. It was made for the use of a small circle of friends. Two objects have been held in view: one, to keep the musical text unchanged; the other, to adhere closely to the sense of the German words; but where the musical rhythm made some change unavoidable, the language of Scripture has been, as far as possible, adopted.

The publisher has much pleasure in acknowledging the liberality with which MISS EMILY GREGG and R. G. LORAINE, ESQ. have allowed him to use their adaptation for this edition, and he trusts that its excellence, together with its cheap form, will bring the finest of SPOHR's Sacred Works within the means of every lover of classical music.

DIE LETZTEN DINGE,

OR,

THE LAST JUDGMENT,

An Oratorio,

By LOUIS SPOHR.

PART I.

OVERTURE.

Chorus—Praise the Lord our God; He that is, He that was, and is to come. Praise His holy name, who giveth us eternal life. His be honor, and majesty, and glory. Worship and adore Him for evermore. Praise, glory to God.—(Rev. i. 7.)

Solo, Treble.—He cometh with clouds, and with majesty; and every eye shall see His salvation: all kindreds of the nation shall wail because of Him.

Bass Solo.—"I am the first, the last, the beginning, and the ending," saith the Almighty. "I was dead; but fear not; I am alive, and shall live for evermore; and I have the keys of Hell, and Death."—(Rev. i. 17, 18).

Chorus.—Praise the Lord our God, &c.

Bass Solo.—"I know," saith the Lord, "all thy poverty and labor. Thou hast suffered with patience for my name's sake: but the love thou first didst bear me, thou hast forsaken, and thou art fallen from thy high estate. Repent thee of thy sin: Repent, and do thy first works. Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of everlasting life."—(Rev. ii. 2, 9, 3, 5, 10).

Chorus.—Praise the Lord our God, &c.

Bass Solo.—"Come," said a voice, "and I will show thee what must be hereafter."—(Rev. iv. 1).

Tenor Solo.—And lo! a throne was set in heaven; and on that throne, one seated.—Rev. iv. 2).

And a rainbow encircled the throne; and around the throne sat four-and-twenty elders, clothed in shining raiment, with golden crowns upon their heads: and from the throne proceeded lightnings, and thunder, and voices, crying day and night.—(Rev. iv. 3, 4, 5).

Tenor Solo and Chorus.—Holy, holy, holy is God our Lord, the Almighty One; He that is, and He that was, and is to come.—(Rev. iv. 8).

Treble Solo.—Behold the Lamb that was sacrificed.

Tenor Solo.—Then said the voice, "Weep not. Behold, he hath conquered: the Lion of Judah hath conquered."—(Rev. v. 5).

Treble Recit.—And the elders all fell down before the Lamb, with golden harps, and golden vials full of odours; and they sang a new song.—(Rev. v. 8, 9).

Treble Solo and Chorus.—O Lord, thou art God alone: to Thee belong all power, and strength, and riches, and wisdom, and blessing, and praise for ever.—(Rev. v. 12).

Tenor Recit.—And every creature in the heavens, and on the earth, and under the earth, and in the sea, cried out, and said:—(Rev. v. 13).

Tenor Solo and Chorus—Blessing, power, honor, glory, and praise unto Him that sitteth upon the throne; and to the Lamb of God for ever.—(Rev. v. 13).

Tenor Recit.—Behold, a great multitude of all nations, and kindreds, and people stood before the throne of the Lamb. And they were clothed in white garments, and had palms in their hands: and they fell down upon their faces, and worshipped God.—(Rev. vii. 9, 11).

Alto Solo.—These are they which came out of great tribulation; and have washed their robes, and made them white in the precious blood of the lamb. Therefore they are before the throne, and serve God day and night. For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them; and God shall wipe away all tears from the eyes of his people.—(Rev. vii. 14, 15, 17).

Quartett.—For God shall lead them: He shall guide them: God from every face shall wipe off every tear. Hail, Lord Almighty! Hail!

Chorus.—Hail, Lord Almighty, Hail! Thou hast redeemed us, and we are thine.

PART II.

SYMPHONY.

Bass Solo.—Thus saith the Lord, the Lord of Hosts: "Behold the end of the earth and all people now cometh. Prepare to meet thy God. And I will judge thee according to thy works. And tell the heathen, the Lord reigneth, and cometh now to judge the world with righteousness and mercy."—(Psalm ix. 8).

Recitative.—The day of judgment breaks: now from afar behold it come. In the field of harvest the voice of the reaper is mute, and the song of the shepherd on the mountain. Grief sounds out of the vale; and from the cliff the cry of woe. It comes! the day of terror comes! Men's hearts shall fail them for fear. That day is a day of wrath, a day of desolation. For the sword is in the field; and within dwelleth famine. Now cast away your silver in the street, and throw away your gold as chaff; and seek the mercy and righteousness of the Lord; for neither silver nor gold shall now deliver you: your gold and silver cannot save you. The king shall mourn, and the people of the land shall be troubled: for they have sinned against the Lord, and their blood shall be poured upon the earth.

Treble and Tenor Duett.—Oh, Lord, remember my affliction and my misery. Save me, O Lord, thou art my hope in time of need. O, hear, and spare me; thou, Lord, art my hope. In my distress I call upon the Lord. Thou art my refuge, save me, O my God! O Lord! to thee I call; O let my mercy be on them that put their trust in thee.

Chorus.—Seek the Lord with prayer and supplication. "Seek me, and ye shall find me," saith the Lord. "For I will show mercy to my chosen, and now will save them: from out all nations I will call them. I will be their saviour; they shall be my people." Thus saith the Lord.—(St. Luke xi. 9; Ezekiel xiv. 11).

Tenor Solo.—Behold now the great day, the day of judgment. O praise the Lord, who made the heavens and earth.

Chorus.—Destruction is fallen on Babylon, the mighty. The great day of wrath is come upon us; O, where shall we fly? O, mourn for the queen of the earth. Fallen—Babylon is fallen? The earth gives up its dead. The sea gives up its dead. The last seal now is broken. The book is now unclosed. The nations tremble before Him. The great day of wrath is come upon us: O, where shall we fly?—(Rev. vi. 17; xx. 13).

SYMPHONY.

Tenor Solo.—All is fulfilled!

Quartett and Chorus.—Blessed for ever are they that die trusting in God; yea, blessed for ever are they that die in the Lord. From henceforth they rest from their labours: for them that sleep in Jesus, God will bring with him. They rest from their labours evermore.—(Rev. xiii. 14; 1 Thess. iv. 14).

Treble Recitative.—And I saw the holy city coming down from heaven, by God prepared, and adorned as a bride. Then shall all the nations bring their glory and honour to the city, and walk in its light: nor sun nor moon need they. God is their light; and there the Lamb of God in glory shines.—(Rev. xxi. 23).

Alto Recitative.—No temple shall be raised therein; henceforth their temple is the Lamb.—(Rev. xxi. 22).

Tenor Recitative.—"Behold, I come myself," saith the Lord your God, "and will reward you according to your works."—(St. Matthew xvi. 27).

Quartett.—Yea, come Lord Jesus.—(Rev. xxii. 20).

Chorus.—Great and wonderful art Thou in thy ways, O Lord, Almighty God! Thy judgments are true, and plenteous in mercy, O Lord of all power and might!

Quartett and Chorus.—Sing praises to Jehovah; sing, and bow the knee before Him. Let all creatures worship Him. He alone is holy. The Lord, our God, is gracious, and His mercy shall endure for evermore: we will bow down, and worship His name.

Chorus.—Hallelujah! Thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, now and evermore. Hallelujah! Amen.
